Pullman Lofts Approved

701 Wilson is a mixed use project consisting of 72 new, residential apartment units and the rehabilitation of the approximately 4,610 square foot, single-story existing commercial building (former Copperfield's Books warehouse). The project includes 73 onsite parking spaces. Construction will take approximately 18 months, including on-site grading. Construction anticipated to begin in winter of 2015 and completed during spring of 2017. Site development would be limited to the hours of 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM, Monday-Friday and 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM on Saturdays or as allowed by the City's Municipal Code.

Neighborhood News

Hewitt Street or Hewett Street?

It can be spelled either way depending on the interpretation of the person spelling it.

Hewett Addition Map

There is Hewitt Street, the Hewett Addition map, a few of the U.S. census spelled it both ways, and so, it just depends.

A few facts about the man whose name we question.

Henry Theodore Hewitt was born Jan. 21, 1829 in Winchester, Litchfield, Conn. He was educated in Conn. and at the academy in N Y. After that schooling was finished he went onto learn the carpentry and mill weights trades which benefited him greatly later in life.

He arrived in San Francisco June 27, 1852 then moved onto Sacramento and then onto the mines where he stayed five (5) years and then moved on to spent some time with the William Walker Campaign in Nicaragua and finally settled in Santa Rosa. He lived and created many businesses during the twenty (20) years he lived here. Most of the information I found about him was taken from the pages of a site called Geneology.com. He was a contractor, builder and manufacturer of lumber operations of a planing mill and dealt in all kinds of building material.

I wasn't able to locate much information from the Santa Rosa Library annex and that surprised me since he seemed to be so involved in the area. I was hoping to locate where his lumber business, hardware store and planing mill were located – it simply said near the railroad station.

I am going to list businesses I read about. The H.T. Hewitt & Co. Planing Mill Lumber Yard Hardware Store near railroad depot. Real estate on 4th Street. A group of incorporators seeking to start a new water company called Mark West Water Co. Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Workingman's Party and a delegate from Santa Rosa. He was elected chairman of the Greenback Labor Party. Along with a man named Mr. Baker they were proprietors of the Santa Rosa Flour Mill on Petaluma Rd. These same two men owned the Woolen & Tannery Mill with Mr. Hewitt being president which he was later removed from.

Hewitt Served as President of S R Woolen Mill

He died May 28, 1898.

H. T. Hewitt's health began to fail him and around the 1880's he moved to San Jacinto, CA where interesting enough he once again got involved with ranching and building...this is a another story.

Not sure what happened to his first wife Jane since she was alive when he married the second time...this also is another story.

I have put together a small file and if you would like to have a look/see please contact me. I was able to buy Hewett Addition map from the county and also some deed transactions which I can't make head or tails of.

Submitted by Marge Jones – your curious neighbor who enjoys the past history.
